2013 NANCY'S PINOT NOIR

SRP: $70

WINE OVERVIEW

Licorice, black pepper and cinnamon complement brambly aromatics entwined with red and black berry fruits. The palate is broad with a mix of both spice and fruit unabashedly revealing its whole cluster fermentation. The robust and prevalent tannin structure of this wine tells of its longevity.

HARVEST OVERVIEW

Consistently warm, dry summer days led to one of the earliest harvests in Stoller's history, beginning on September 13, 2013 with younger Pinot Noir sections. As processing progressed, temperatures cooled and rain showers settled in, setting up a true "vintner's vintage," where meticulous sorting and attentive winemaking were essential. Despite these challenges, the 2013 Stoller vintage ultimately delivered pure, nuanced wines of exceptional quality.
